

The AICTE – UKIERI leadership workshop –II was inaugurated at C.V. Raman College of Engineering today by the AICTE Chairman Prof. Anil D. Sahasrabudhe, Dr. R.S. Rathore Director Skill Development AICTE, Dr. Debanjan Chkraborty Director British Council East India, Prof. Lowell Willims Principal Dudley College UK, and Shri Balwant Singh, IAS Director Technical Education, Govt. of Odisha were among other dignitaries who share the dais.

The focus of the workshop was to foster effective leadership qualities and promote managerial skills among the educational probationers of today. The workshop was attended by 100 participants from different leading AICTE affiliated engineering institutes in the country. The services of the experts from Dudley College UK were drafted to mount the three day workshop.

Er. Sanjib Kumar Rout extended a hearty welcome to all the participants and assured the AICTE Chairman full cooperation in hosting such workshops in future. The AICTE Chairman Prof. Anil D. Sahasrabudhe spoke on the outcome of such leadership workshops. The inaugural function concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr. Indira Routray the coordinator of the workshop.

